Application

3.-(1) These rules shall apply to any person who is admitted and registered as a student of the School.

(2) Each student shall make a declaration as specified in the Second Schedule to these rules acknowledging receipt and agreeing to abide by these Rules.

PART II

RESIDENTIAL AND OTHER MATTERS INCIDENTAL THERETO

Halls of residence

4.-(1) A student may, upon admission and registration as students of the School, and depending on the availability of accommodation in the halls of residence or any specified residence on the campus, live in the School's halls of residence or in any such other specified residences as may be allocated to them by the halls superintendent or any other officer of the School having such powers.

(2) Every student shall, before being granted any accommodation or the right to occupy any room in the halls of residence or in any other premises on campus earmarked for residential purposes, pay for such accommodation at full rate as the School may determine from time to time.

(3) The Dean of Students shall have the power to evict any student who has fraudulently or by misrepresentation secured accommodation in any premises of the School, or any student who has been allocated accommodation without having paid for such accommodation in advance as provided for under subrule (2).

(4) Any student who is evicted from the room by the Dean of Students under subrule (3) shall not be considered again for any accommodation unless the Principal directs otherwise.

(5) The School shall have the right and power to determine the number of students who may share any of its rooms in the halls of residence or in any other premises earmarked for residential purposes,

(6) A student shall bear the costs for on or off-campus accommodation.

Conditions attached to rooms etc.

5.-(1) A student shall not change the room allocated to him without the prior permission of the halls superintendent or any other officer of the School acting on his behalf.

(2) Every student shall, at the end of each semester, hand back to the relevant authorities the room and room keys and any other item the School might have issued him either for use in the room allocated to the student or in connection with any activity of the School.

(3) Students shall report without delay any damage whether accidental or otherwise direct to the appropriate officer-in-charge of the section under whose care such property was kept.

(4) In the event of any dispute as to one's liability under subrule (4) the officer-in-charge of the section shall refer the matter to the Dean of Students who shall report it to the Students' Disciplinary Committee for determination.

(5) Any damage to, or loss of any property of the School by any student shall be made good by the student and the cost of making good the damage or replacing the lost item shall be borne by the student concerned.

(6) Where damage or loss is caused by students whose identities are not known, the cost of repair or replacement shall be shared by all the students involved at the time and, or the place where damage or loss occurred.

Cleaning and management of their rooms

6.-(1) A student shall be responsible for the daily cleaning of his rooms.

(2) Students of the opposite gender shall be allowed to share a room.

Student to take care of his properties

35. The School shall not be responsible for the care and safety of any motor vehicle, motor cycle or any other property of a student.

Students debts

36.-(1) The School may exclude any student from studies or examinations if such student has any outstanding debts to the School arising from fees, accommodation charges or any other lawful arrangement involving the student and the School.

(2) A student who is excluded from studies for reasons specified under subrule (1) may be re-admitted at the School when all the outstanding debts have been settled.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule (2) no student shall be re-admitted if he does not settle the bill within two academic years from the date of such exclusion.

Accommodation upon suspension

37. Any student suspended from studies shall, unless permitted by the Principal or any person acting on his behalf, vacate School accommodation in case he occupied one.

Students to bear any costs of suspension

38. Any student who resumes studies at the School after being suspended under any of the provisions of these rules or any other law in force applicable to such student shall personally bear all the costs and other consequences of such suspension.

General complaints

39. Students' complaints of any nature shall first be handled by the School's established mechanism for handling students' complaints after such complaints have been presented to the Dean of Students by the Law School of Tanzania Students' Organisation.

Complaints against School's staff

40.-(1) Any complaint by any student on any member of staff of the School shall be reported to the officer-in-charge of the section or department in which such member belongs and such officer shall, on failure to settle the matter, refer it to the appropriate higher authority next in command.

(2) Any complaint under subrule (1) shall be lodged in writing through the Dean of Students.

Penalties to be recorded

41. Any penalty imposed on any student by any authority under these Rules or any other law in force and applicable to such student shall be recorded or caused to be recorded in the personal file of the student concerned.

Smoking

42. Smoking shall not be permitted in the School premises except in designated areas.

Amendment of rules

44. The Board may amend these rules at any time it deems necessary.

Disputes

45. Where any dispute arises out of the enforcement of these rules, the dispute shall be placed before the School Management Committee of the Board for determination or further directive and, if need arises, before the Board for decision.
