ONLINE APPLICATIONS FOR ADMISSION INTO THE PRACTICAL LEGAL TRAINING PROGRAMME IN THE JANUARY 2026 INTAKE

Introduction:

The Law School of Tanzania is a public training institution established by the Law School of Tanzania Act, Cap. 425, R. E. 2023 to provide practical legal training for law graduates who aspire to become legal practitioners in Mainland Tanzania.

The School has resolved to open a new application window for a limited number of One Hundred and Fifty (150) applicants for the January 2026 intake. Qualified candidates wishing to pursue the Practical Legal Training Programme commencing in January 2026 are hereby invited to apply. Applicants who were previously offered admission but failed to register are required to submit fresh applications. Owing to the limited number of slots available, the determination of eligibility, admission, and subsequent registration of qualified applicants shall be conducted strictly on a first-come, first-served basis.

Entry Requirements:

- 1.0 An applicant must meet the following minimum qualifications to be admitted into the programme:
  - (a) He/she must be a holder of a Bachelor of Laws Degree or a person who has become eligible for the conferment of the Bachelor of Laws Degree of an accredited higher learning institution in Mainland Tanzania; or,
  - (b) He/she must be a holder of a Bachelor of Laws Degree or a person who has become eligible for the conferment of the Bachelor of Laws Degree of a higher learning institution recognized by the Tanzania Commission for Universities (TCU) and whose content is approved by the Council of Legal Education for purposes of admission to the School; or,
  - (c) He/she must have equivalent qualifications approved by the Council of Legal Education obtained from any institution within or outside Tanzania.
- 2.0 In addition to the above criteria, an applicant shall be eligible for the programme if he/she has studied and passed all the prescribed core courses of the Bachelor of Laws Degree programme shown in Table 1 below:
